

Channel 4 Plans

Marijuana Series

Milwaukee area youths who have used marijuana will relate their experiences with the drug as part of a six part series examining sale and use of marijuana in this area on "News 4" at 10 p.m. on WTMJ-TV, The Milwaukee Journal station, starting Sunday.

The series, produced by John McCullough and filmed in color, will open with an introductory segment.

The Monday feature will cover general aspects of marijuana. "The Case for Legalization of Marijuana Use" will be presented Tuesday by James Shellow, Milwaukee attorney. The viewpoint against legalization will be given Wednesday by Dr. Raymond McCall, dean of Marquette university's psychology department. Milwaukee area youths Thursday will describe their own experiences with marijuana, while Friday's segment will offer a look at a "pot party."