Dear Mr McCann

re: FRANCIS MATOLENGWE

Bishop Patrick Matolengwe was one of the Suffragan Bishops in the Diocese of Cape Town, South Africa, before he accepted the appointment of Dean of All Saints Cathedral, Milwaukee. He and his family are well known to me.

It came as a great shock to me to hear that his son, Francis, had been accused of being an accomplice in a theft charge. I have always known the family to a close one.

If he is convicted I would plead for leniency. He was politically active in this country and there would be serious political consequences if he were deported.

I hope and pray the charge against him will prove unfounded.

God bless you

Yours sincerely

+Desmond Cape Town
